

Report on the symposium on 75 years of India's freedom struggle on 12th March, 2021

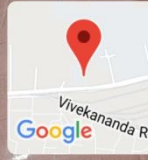

A symposium on 75 years of India's freedom struggle was held on 12th March, 2021 in room no.1 of Arts block of MDKG College, Dibrugarh. At the very outset, Dr.Utpal Sut, IQAC Coordinator extended warm welcome to all the participants of the symposium. Dr.Sut stated the objective of holding the symposium. Mrs. Purnima Chutia, Vice-Principal of science stream of the college attended the symposium as Juri member. Dr. Anita Sharma, assistant professor in the department of political science of the college delivered speech as resource person in the symposium. In her deliberations, Dr. Sharma included the freedom fighters of India with special reference to north-eastern region of India. Dr. Sharma clearly explained the role women in freedom struggle of India with emphasis on critical dimensions of Indian society. Dr. Sharma also emphasised on the exploration of different women freedom fighters who were not imprinted on the books of history of India. Mrs.Purnima Chutia, Vice Principal of the science stream of the college explained the legacy of historical evidence to justify the role of freedom fighters in freedom struggle of India. Dr. Sut added the historical evidences of Indian freedom fighters in freedom struggle and he explained the very fact of paralysing the economic freedom of Indian people during the reign of British in India. Dr.Rizia Begum Laskar, assistant professor in the department of English explained the role of Bengal people in Indian freedom movement. Mr.Utpal Gogoi, assistant professor in the department of History explained the importance of social and economic freedom to fight against the slavery of the Indian society with citation of Russian revolution. All total thirty six participants participated in the symposium. At the end, Dr.Sut offered vote of thanks to all the participants of the symposium for their active participation.
